Dreams are made of beach homes like this! The original owners are quite the duo; she dreams it with oodles of style, and he builds it to meticulous standards.

The main house is single level and the breathtaking new addition, located on the upstairs level, is a self contained guest quarter with separate entrance. There is also an internal access if that connection is required. This could be a wonderful source of income (STCA).

Three Cudgerie is owned by empty nesters who frequently have their grandchildren, family and friends over for beach days or lazy afternoons spent by the pool. The beach is a short two minute stroll along a side footpath, so no need to drive!

The main house is as bespoke as the new guest wing! The bathrooms and kitchen have all been tastefully updated and the home lovingly maintained through the years. Vaulted ceilings, lots of natural northern light, and an established, low maintenance garden provide privacy and
