This opulent beach home is the ultimate turn key hideaway!

Completely refurbished by the current owners to create an eclectic, industrial, yet welcoming beach pad.

Designed over three levels serviced by a lift, plus a completely separate commercially zoned studio on the front. This property could comfortably handle several groups for a weekend!

The top level is an open plan master studio with exquisite views over the Tweed River towards Mt Warning and the ocean towards Cook Island. From here, you move down to the first floor which is set up as a self contained, two bedroom unit flowing onto the outdoor decking and stunning pool area! These two floors could function as a family home or two separate dwellings.

Exposed rafters, raked ceilings and high windows create an indoor outdoor feel capturing those beautiful sea breezes. Bespoke cabinetry, bench tops and polished concrete floors create a luxurious feel throughout.
