Upon entry into this stylish beach home, its evident these owners have combined their great sense of style to create the perfect beach sanctuary for their family.

This home is quiet, filled with natural, northern light and cool ocean breezes that waft through both levels - just as a beach house should feel!

The interiors are modern and "beach bespoke" in a relaxed and uncontrived way. New stacked stone feature wall, micro-cement flooring, rattan pendants and rustic timber accents create this luxe ambiance.

Entertaining a crowd or intimate gathering is effortless, with the indoor/outdoor living and chilling "destinations" that surround the generous 10m pool. This home has a proper garden which is rare these days with mostly smaller blocks on offer. Land size will always reward long term!

What a pleasure living just five homes off the pristine beachfront and bike/walk paths that run from Cabarita to
