

12 Ocean Street Kingscliff NSW

3  2  1

AUCTION- On-site Sunday 5th November 11am NSW.

Originally built in the 1960s and recently renovated, the aptly named 'Kingscliff Sun-house' exudes character and charm.

Appealing from the street and even more tasteful inside, the soaring ceilings, strategically positioned windows, and polished timber flooring are sure to captivate mid-century architecture enthusiasts.

The heart of the home is the sunlit, modern open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area. This space captures glimpses of the lush greenery and blue skies from most windows. Down the hallway, there are three generously sized bedrooms and a main bathroom. An additional bathroom and laundry complete the layout.

Flowing onto the spacious alfresco entertaining deck, this area is perfect for enjoying a beverage while overlooking the expansive yard of the 734m² north-facing block. You can take your gardening skills to the next level or let the kids/grandkids run free while keeping a close eye on them
